Sheboygan County: A Strong Tradition of Service

Cassia Masonic Lodge
in Plymouth

Meals On Wheels has over 1000 volunteers delivering meals in the course of a year. On any given day, members of one of these service clubs can be found delivering a club-sponsored route. Because they choose to volunteer their time, over 300 people got fed today.

MOW Volunteers Enjoy The Annual Tailgate Party

The annual tailgate party for Meals On Wheels volunteers was held on Thursday, June 23rd at First United Lutheran Church in Sheboygan. Over 120 people enjoyed the traditional meal of brats and hamburgers, potato salad, baked beans and cole slaw. Unfortunately, the weather forced a cancellation of the Sheboygan A's baseball game which usually follows the meal. The food for this event is donated by Johnsonville, Miesfelds, and Lakeside Pepsi. For the past ten years, Jumes Catering donated both their time grilling the meats and the side dishes for the meal. We are very grateful for all of their support. We were fortunate to have Al & Al's step up to the plate and take over the grilling for us. Thank you to all our generous donors who make this appreciation event possible.

We Love a Parade!

The new Meals On Wheels delivery truck made it's debut in the 4th of July parade. The smiling group of volunteers who walked along or rode in the truck are: (left to right) Carol Gustafson, Shianne Buduan with her Big Sister Sandy Werdeo, Sue Rosenwald, Wendy Klein, Andy Heyn, Meals On Wheels recipient Barbara Rickmeier, Executive Director Kelly Heyn and Alex Heyn.

Bad News Good News

Over the years we have come to rely on Lisa Lehmann (one of our client coordinators) to provide the remarkable photography you see in The Scoop and other MOW publications. Most notably, Lisa provided all the photography for our award winning 'flip book' fund raiser.

In June, Lisa parted ways with Meals On Wheels to devote her time to her business, Lehmann Photography which specializes in personal portraits. Lisa works with people of all ages. Her photographs are transformative - each a work of art to behold. It was our good fortune to have Lisa on staff. We wish her success in her new career.

The South Horizon Lunch Bunch

Every Monday through Friday, these six friends gather in the South Horizon Apartment community room and enjoy their Meals On Wheels dinner together. Rumor has it they share a lot of laughter too! They are (clockwise) Bob Hibbard, Loretta Gahagan, Betty Humphrey, Emma Prigge, Dorothy Schinker and Lorraine Wilson.

Meals On Wheels graciously thanks the following individuals and organizations for donations received between March 15th and June 30th

The Faces of Meals On Wheels

The Client

Florence Papenfuss

Florence has always been a busy lady. She and her husband raised their ten children on an 80-acre farm in La Crescent, Minnesota. Now she is enjoying her golden years in Plymouth. With 22 grandchildren and umpteen great-grandchildren, it's no surprise that one of her hobbies is scrapbooking! Her other hobby is making doll clothes. The next thing on her agenda is learning how to use the Kindle her children gave her for her birthday!

Florence thinks the Meals On Wheels volunteers are all terrific. Her dog Jade has made friends with many of them. Florence doesn't care for beets, but enjoys all the rest of the meals that we send her.

The Volunteer

Jim Gould

Jim and his wife Joan have been Meals On Wheels volunteers for two years. According to Jim they make a perfect team. He's the expert navigator and Joan takes care of the particulars - putting the meal in the fridge or helping open containers, etc...They run route 11 once a month and substitute on other routes when they can.

Jim is also a volunteer MOW truck driver. Monday - Friday, he and a small group of men take turns driving meals out to Plymouth in the MOW truck. We are always looking for a few more truck volunteers. Call MOW at 451-7011 if you're interested.

The Board Member

Rev. Julia Hollister

Over 10 years ago Jackie Smith invited Rev. Julia Hollister to join the MOW Board of Directors. She is currently serving a second term. Julia had no idea how much the organization would become a part of her life. She is inspired by the act of feeding people and providing a daily connection for the homebound members of our community.

Julia and her husband Jim are serving in their 15th year as co-pastors at First Congregational Church in Sheboygan. They have a 14 year-old son, Jon and an 11 year-old daughter, Jessie who keep them active both in and outside of their church.
